Central Texas Medical Center will have a blood drive on Wednesday, September 30 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. on the first floor in the main classroom.

Blood drives are an essential part of providing health care to the community. In order to maintain a blood supply that will support the surrounding area, 55,000 units of blood must be donated quarterly. An individual donation can save the lives of two other people.

You can sign up before the event or find answers to any questions you may have about donating online at www.inyourhands.org. Be sure to use Sponsor Code: CTMC and remember to bring your photo I.D. and Social Security number.

Plum Creek 3rd Annual BBQ

Plum Creek is having its 3rd Annual BBQ on Saturday October 10, 2009, and is looking to try and expand a bit and have something like a small version of Front Porch Days. They would like to open up some vendor spots for people this year to get people in the Holiday mood and start them Christmas Shopping early. There will be a $20 space fee for anyone interested.

Plum Creek will have a lot of stuff happening in the neighborhood that day. All day along with the BBQ Cook-off, there will also be the Wildflower Seed Stomp, Family Fishing Day, Pet Fest & a Scarecrow contest.

Monsters vs. Aliens will also be showing that evening for Movies in the Park. If you would like to have a slide in the slide show, the price per slide is $10. They have been running the slides at each movie, usually 2 - 3 times prior to the movie starting and again at the end of the movie while people are gathering their stuff. The ads are mixed with Trivia questions.

If you have any questions, please contact Brandee Otto.

Thanks for always supporting our community~

Tanger, CTMC Think Pink, Fight Breast Cancer

Tanger Outlet Centers has partnered with Central Texas Medical Center (CTMC) in both institutions' ongoing fight against Breast Cancer. Beginning now through October 20, Tanger will sell its Tanger Style of Pink savings card that provides shoppers a 25 percent discount on a single item at participating stores. Each card can be purchased for a minimum of a $1 donation at Tanger Shopper Services, Suite 319 or through the CTMC Foundation office.

Proceeds from sale of the Pink Cards will stay in the community by benefitting Central Texas Medical Center's breast cancer services, including its new Lymphedema therapy program. CTMC's Physical Therapy & Rehabilitation Institute Lymphedema therapy is a service that helps prevent swelling due to the buildup of a protein-rich fluid in the tissues of the skin often following treatment for breast cancer. Treatment by a Certified Lymphedema Therapist helps to manage the swelling and prevent tissue damage.

Tanger Outlet is now in the 16th year of its nationwide fight against Breast Cancer. Since Stanley Tanger founded the program in 1994, Tanger has now donated $6.1 million to organizations such as the American Cancer society and more than a dozen others across the nation to help find a cure for Breast Cancer.

For more information about Central Texas Medical Center's breast cancer services, including its Lymphedema Therapy program, please call 512-753-8687 or visit their Web site at ctmc.org. Pink Cards may be purchased at CTMC every Thursday from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Daily Bread Cafe entrance through October 20. Central Texas Medical Center is located at 1301 Wonder World Drive in San Marcos.

Hays County Food Bank TURKEYS TACKLING HUNGER

People are hungry...
★ Feed a family for Thanksgiving!

It's Turkey time again! Hays County Food Bank's annual campaign to raise money for Thanksgiving turkey boxes kicks off the first week of October.

$20 buys one family a holiday meal that includes a turkey and all the trimmings for a Thanksgiving meal. Last year they put together turkey boxes for 1376 families throughout Hays County.

With the holidays approaching, the situation looks bleak for people dealing with a job loss, illness, or hard times. They could use your help. Learn more and donate online here.

The Food Bank needs volunteers to help get the word out, put up campaign posters and distribute donation envelopes. If you or your church, business, or civic group would like to help, call 512.392.8300.
